A Weekend of Dreams

24th & 25th February 2018

Shekinah Centre, Newchurch in Pendle

Saturday 24th February: The focus will be upon exploring the concept of projection and how this can help reveal the unconscious messages from different aspects of self. Individuals will be invited to explore their dreams using techniques from the Gestalt Model. This will be facilitated by Richard Davis who is a Senior Lecturer in Counselling & Psychotherapy with the University of Central Lancashire; where he teaches Graduate and Post Graduate students, he is a UKCP registered Psychotherapist.

Sunday 25th February: The focus will be upon exploring the story within the dream using Jungian theory to support the learning. This will be facilitated by Dr Phil Goss who is the Director of Counselling and Psychotherapy programmes in the Centre for Lifelong Learning, University of Warwick. He is a Humanistic counsellor and UKCP registered Jungian psychotherapist.

Overnight accommodation is available on request.
